

ULTRASOUND TRAINING COURSES

INTRODUCTORY ULTRASOUND IN CHRONIC PAIN MANAGEMENT

A One-Day Practical Course for chronic pain medicine physicians

This course is awarded 5 Royal College of Anaesthetists CPD Credits

COURSE DIRECTOR

Professor Dominic Harmon

Consultant in Anaesthesia/Pain Medicine

Mid-Western Regional Hospital and University of Limerick, Ireland

FACULTY

Dr Christian Egeler

Consultant in Anaesthesia

& Pain Medicine

Morrison Hospital, Wales

Dr Philip Hu

Consultant in Anaesthesia

& Pain Medicine

Adelaide and Meath Hospital, Ireland

Dr Adrian Searle

Consultant in Anaesthesia

& Pain Medicine

Derbyshire Royal Infirmary

Faculty Changes may be made

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

09.00 Registration and coffee

09.30 Lecture: Knowledge Assessment (Pretest)

09.45 Lecture: Basic Techniques for Ultrasound Guided Injections

10.15 Lecture: Sonoanatomy Overview: Spine structures

10.45 Lecture: Sonoanatomy Overview: Peripheral structures

11.15 Coffee break

11.30 Practical: Ultrasound and spine injection techniques (Hands on scanning)

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Practical: Ultrasound and peripheral nerve, soft tissue and joint injection techniques (Hands on scanning)

15.30 Coffee break

15.45 Lecture: An overview of advantages and disadvantages of ultrasound in chronic pain intervention as used in routine practice

16.15 Lecture: Knowledge Assessment (Posttest)

16.45 Close